

I'm writing to voice my concern on the proposed weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. I am very opposed to this possibility. I value my peace and quiet time, after a long day of work. Being able to enjoy this time without the intrusion of telemarketers is so nice. Thanks for your time.

Richard Schroeder